2. I have conducted or will conduct my own research prior to the sale, which may also include obtaining an independent title search and/or speaking with an attorney regarding the procedures that may be necessary to obtain clear title to any property upon which I may bid at any tax sale; or, alternatively, I am electing to move forward without a title search and will assume all risks therefrom.

In the event I choose to enter the property or take possession of the property without receiving the deed to the property, I am doing so at my own peril. Furthermore, I understand that in no event shall the Tax Claim Bureau be liable to me for any fees or expenses, including but not limited to repairs, improvements or lawsuits, I may incur as a result of any actions I may take with respect to the property prior to obtaining marketable title to the property, which is my sole responsibility.
